JESUS AMONG US

Week 11, Day 76

Brotherly Correction and Unity

Read: Matthew 18:15-20

Part of the human experience is to be offended and to offend. In our brokenness, we sin against others repeatedly.

While Jesus deals with the heart of our sin through his suffering, death, and resurrection, he knows the collateral damage of sin must also be dealt with if we are to live in community. Forgiveness, correction and unity are essential if the followers of Jesus are to announce the Good News of Jesus not just with our words, but by the way we live and the way we live together.

Table Talk

- How can we ensure that we confront fellow believers in humility?
- Why is it so difficult to give a rebuke? Why is it so difficult to receive a rebuke?
